SHAWKEY NOW ONE OF THE BEST; MACK'S FIND MAY BE USED IN WORLD'S SERIES

Bob Shawkey.

Two months ago in the minors, a twister for the Baltimore club in the International league, Bob Shawkey of the Athletics may be used by Connie Mack in the world's series. He is pitching in great form, and Mack is not strong on pitchers. Since his debut at Chicago, July 16, Shawkey has pitched seventy-three innings and his opponents have not seventeen runs off him.

THE THEATERS

"A Rolling Stone," by Herbert Hall Winslow, in which Al. H. Wilson will appear September 16 at the Robinson Grand, was selected by Mr. Wilson and his new managers, Louis B. Mayer and Ben Stern, as the best of many plays submitted. For the first time in Mr. Wilson's career, he was given a chorus of young and pretty girls to assist him in his latest compositions which are scattered through the piece.

Bayard Veiller's intensely interesting new American play, "Within the Law," which the American Play Company is soon to present in this city at the Robinson Grand is described by the critics in New York and Chicago as the most attractive dramatic novelty the native stage has produced in a decade. The story deals with the struggle of a young woman to rehabilitate herself in society after serving a term in prison for a crime of which she is innocent.

The thousands who have treasured their memories of "Little Women," which will be presented October 1 at the Robinson Grand, need not fear their illusions will be shattered by anything that the dramatic version contains. They will see realized to the very spirit of Mrs. Abbott's book the familiar scenes and hear the familiar speech spoken as its author would have them hear it.

In the cast of "Oh, I Say," will be Molly Monahan, of "Bumy Pulls the Strings" fame; Jobyna Howland Alice Brady, Vida Whitmore and Walter Jones.

Cecilia Loftus will be the Juliet in William Faversham's production of "Romeo and Juliet." June Opp will play Lady Capulet. Miss Opp will also play Emilia in "Othello."

Perceval Knight, who had a big

Al. H. Wilson, in "A Rolling Stone."

Mary Boland, Laura Hope Crews and Alice John—the first a blonde, the second a Titian red and the third a deep brunette—the three markedly different types of leading women selected by Charles Frohman to play the principal feminine comedy parts in support of John Drew in "Much Ado About Nothing."

Grace La Rue has gone abroad to fill an engagement in London. When she returns she will appear in a new musical play.

BOWLING NEWS

Locals Lose to Fairmont.

The Gore alley duck pin team was defeated by the Temple alley team on the Temple alleys at Fairmont Friday night by seventy-two pins in a three game contest. The local team rolled in hard luck the first two games but came back strong in the last game and won it but could not overcome the large lead taken by the Fairmont team. Douglas of the local team, and King of the Fairmont team, had high averages for the evening.

SYNOD

Of West Virginia and Mary- land Lutheran Churches

The Evangelical Lutheran synod of West Virginia, embracing the Lutheran churches of West Virginia and one or two in Maryland, will meet at Accident, Md., October 9 and continue through the thirteenth.
The Rev. I. K. Probst, pastor of the Grace Lutheran church of Fairmont, is the president of the conference, and he will preside at the sessions.

The Rev. L. K. Young is pastor of the church at Accident in which the synod sessions will be held.

The Rev. A. F. Richardson, of Grafton, will preach the opening sermon and the ordination sermon will be preached by the Rev. W. S. Dyfinger, of Wheeling. Three young men will be ordained into the ministry at the session.

The habitual reader is urged to increase the purchasing power of practically every dollar that he spends.
Sometimes his dollar does the work of two. Always he does a little more than the dollar of the person who does not read and learn and think.
